

Interacting Superprocesses and Conditional Independence

by

Hao Wang

University of Oregon

Department of Mathematics, University of Oregon, Eugene, OR97403, USA

`haowang@uoregon.edu`

Abstract

We will discuss a class of interacting superprocesses in which the log-Laplace functional does not hold. Therefore, the typical methods for independent superprocesses do not available for this class of superprocesses. However, based on the conditional independence, we still can derive their many interesting properties.